

19th Annual Children's Bookmark Contest!

For Kids in Preschool—Grade 8

October 1st-27th, 2012

Color your World—Read!

As easy as 1, 2, 3!

- 1) Come up with an awesome idea
- 2) Draw it (This year, use COLOR!)
- 3) Turn it in to win prizes!

- Turn your design into Youth Services at Spring Lake District Library after October 1 and before 5pm on October 27th, 2012.
- All entries will be displayed in the library during November 2012. Winners will receive prizes & their bookmarks will be printed for use in the library.

Rules and Helpful Hints from the Judges

Use the form provided or a piece of paper 8 1/2 inches tall by 3 1/2 inches wide. Use the bottom 2.5 inches for your name, school, grade, address, and phone number.

Colors of all shades are allowed AND encouraged! (Helpful hint: Bright colors will show up better if your bookmark gets printed)

The theme is Color Your World—Read! but if inspiration strikes for anything related to books, reading, or libraries, that's allowed too.

Lettering should be CLEAN and NEAT.

Make sure all words are spelled correctly.

Don't use recognizable cartoon characters.

Use your own design, don't trace others.

Enter as many times as you have ideas!

Entries will be judged on originality, neatness, coolness, AND printability.

DREAM IMAGINE LEARN
in the Youth Services Department of Spring Lake District Library
