8. Selecting a Zinio Digital Magazine from your Library Collection Site.

You have options for selecting magazines from your library's collection. Click on a magazine cover, scroll down the Title drop-down menu, or scroll down the Genre drop-down menu.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <https://rbdg.envionsoftware.com/skipjacktest/zinio/landing/?t=rLFBDkWkx6IHBxcPH3sEq14NNTbysdTOZDPnCA40qEiyatrzAF>. The browser's address bar and tabs are visible at the top. The website header includes navigation links: FAQ, How To Video, User Guide, and Bookmark. Below the header is the Recorded Books logo. A message states: "Your library is proud to bring you these great magazines. Check back often as we will be adding more to our collection in the coming weeks. Bookmark this page to return after selecting your magazine." Below this is a search bar with a "SEARCH HERE" arrow pointing to it. The search bar contains a "Title:" dropdown menu, a "Genre:" dropdown menu, a "Go!" button, and the text "Search Bar". Below the search bar are navigation links: Page 1 - Page 2 - Page 3 - Page 4 - Page 5 - Page 6 - Page 7 - Page 8 - Page 9. Three magazine covers are displayed:
1. Astronomy: "SPECIAL MARS ISSUE: RETURN TO THE RED PLANET", "Will Curiosity find LIFE on MARS?", "Mars Science Laboratory is poised to make history", "HOW twin rovers found water on Mars", "Game plan for landing humans on Mars", "20 BEST dark-sky sites in the U.S.", "Imaging heaven and Earth", "Explore inside the Summer Triangle".
2. Bloomberg Businessweek: "WXX" graphic with a woman in a red dress.
3. Car and Driver: "FUN AT 40 MPG: DART, FOCUS, GOLF TD", "IN SEARCH OF THE WORLD'S BEST SEDAN", "NEW S6, M5, AND E63 THROW DOWN!", "THE COOLEST 911 EVER", "WORLD'S FUNNY NEW ESCAPE", "ROAD-TRIPPING IN A McLAREN", "DELTAWING AND A PRAYER".
A blue arrow points from the text "CLICK on the cover to select and open magazine" to the Car and Driver cover. Below each cover is a caption: Astronomy, Bloomberg Businessweek, and Car and Driver.

9. Create and Log-into Your Personal Zinio View Account

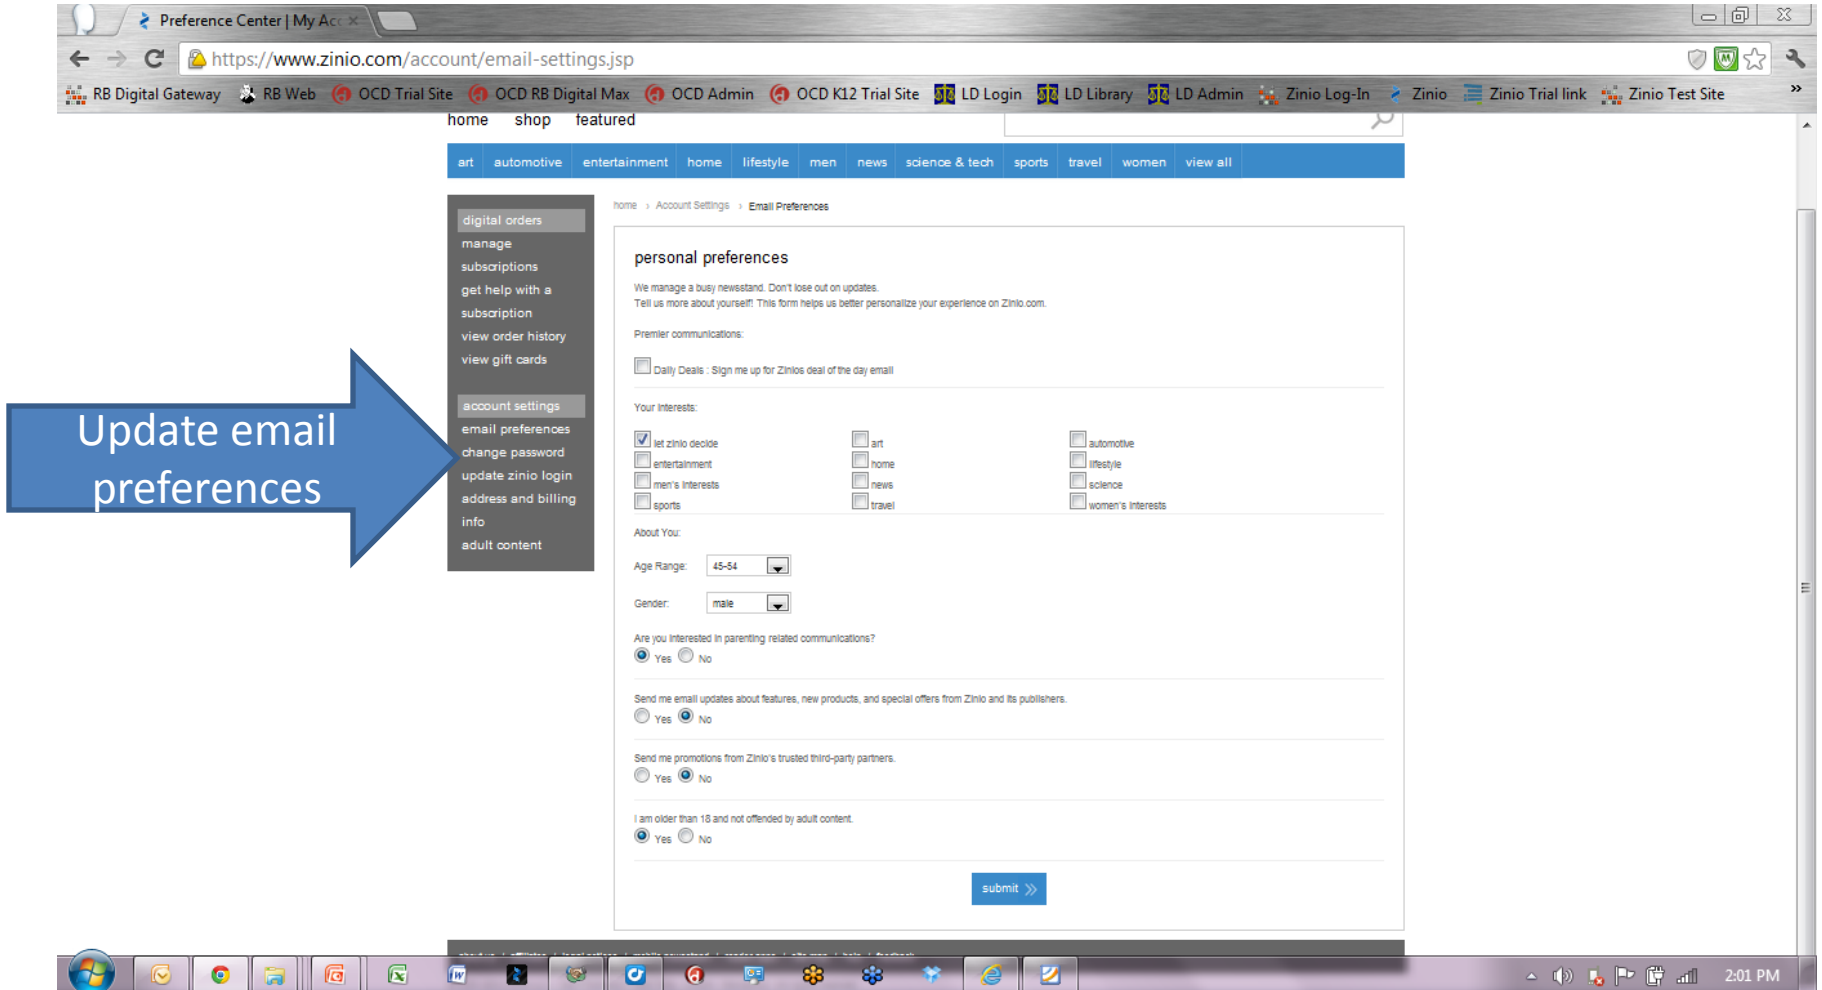

- After you select your first magazine in your Library Collection, a second browser window will open to Zinio.com.
- If you already have a consumer Zinio.com - first log out of Zinio.com – so you can tie your existing account to your library account. Click on the sign in here link and your personal magazines and the one you selected from the library collection will appear in your Zinio.com view account.
- For NEW Zinio.com users - you will need to create a free Zinio.com account to view your magazine. This Zinio.com account is required for you to view the magazines online – and to access the mobile Apps.
- This is a separate account from your library authenticated account created to select your library magazines.

- The benefit of your personal account beyond viewing the magazines, enables you to personalize your collection to view online or offline (on Zinio4 Reader enabled Apps.) Apps are developed specifically for PC, Mac, iPad, iPhone, Android, Kindle Fire, and Blackberry Playbook devices.

10. Select email preferences.

•When you first create your Zinio.com account, you are asked to review email preferences. The 'Let Zinio Decide' box is defaulted as checked. This selection will send you some email notifications including when new magazine issues from the titles you selected are available in your account. If you want to NOT RECEIVE email messages, simply de-select the option by clicking the 'check mark' off and update your preferences by clicking the 'submit' button. Regardless of your selection, you will receive a reminder email EACH time a new issue is added to your Zinio viewer site per standard digital magazine practices.

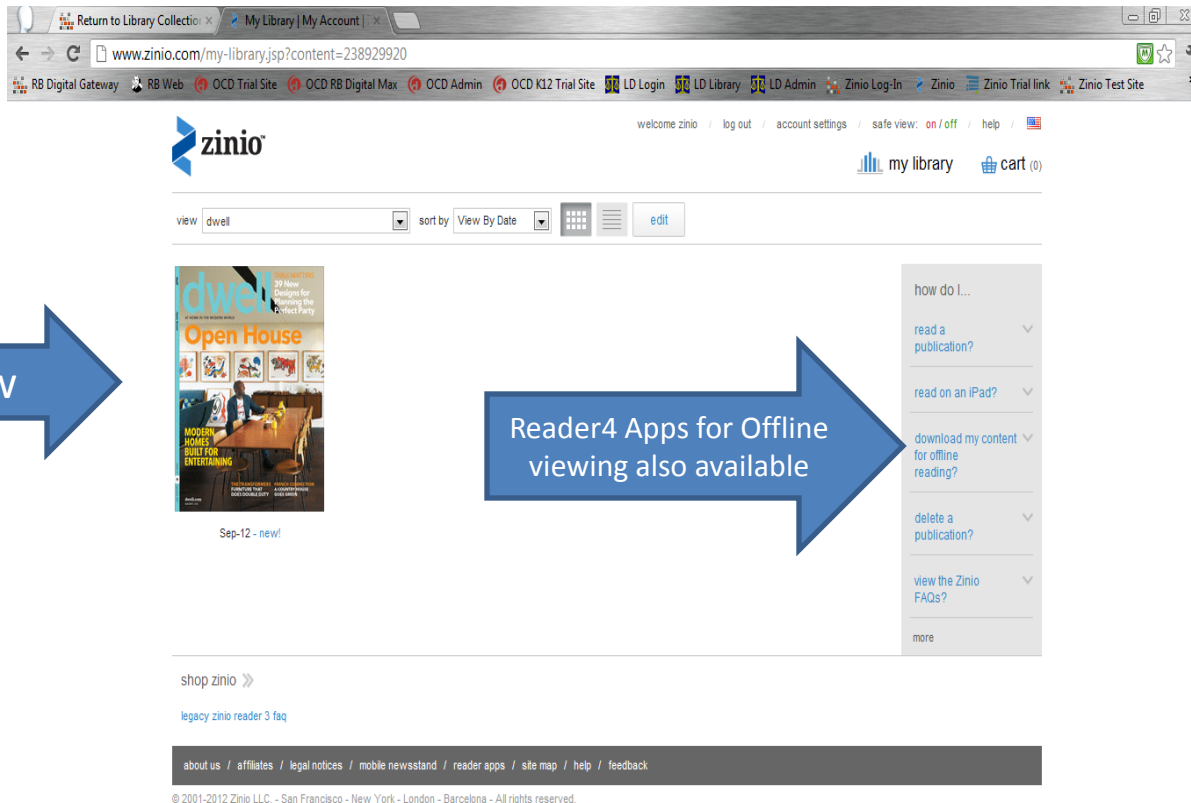

The screenshot shows a web browser window at <https://www.zinio.com/account/email-settings.jsp>. The page title is "Preference Center | My Account". The browser's address bar shows the URL. The page content includes a navigation menu with categories like "art", "automotive", "entertainment", "home", "lifestyle", "men", "news", "science & tech", "sports", "travel", "women", and "view all". A sidebar on the left lists various account settings, with "email preferences" highlighted. A large blue arrow points from the text "Update email preferences" to this link. The main content area is titled "personal preferences" and contains several sections: "Premier communications" with a checkbox for "Daily Deals"; "Your Interests" with checkboxes for "let zinio decide" (checked), "entertainment", "men's interests", "sports", "art", "home", "news", "travel", "automotive", "lifestyle", "science", and "women's interests"; "About You" with dropdown menus for "Age Range" (45-54) and "Gender" (male); and three radio button questions: "Are you interested in parenting related communications?" (Yes selected), "Send me email updates about features, new products, and special offers from Zinio and its publishers." (No selected), and "Send me promotions from Zinio's trusted third-party partners." (No selected). At the bottom, there is a "submit" button and a checkbox for "I am older than 18 and not offended by adult content." (Yes selected).

11. Viewing Your Magazines on Desktop/Laptops and Mobile Devices

- After logging into your Zinio Account, you can view your magazines on your PC/Mac (or from your downloaded Apps) Click on the magazine cover and the magazine will open in a new browser box.
- A 'Read' prompt will appear on the magazine cover – click on it and a new browser viewer window will load the issue.
- If a 'Requires Reader 4' prompt appears on the magazine cover – that issue may only be viewed in the Reader 4 App

•TO CHECK OUT THE NEXT ISSUE IN YOUR MAGAZINE SUBSCRIPTION, GO BACK TO YOUR LIBRARY COLLECTION PAGE AND SELECT THE NEW ISSUE SO YOU CAN KEEP CURRENT WITH THE LATEST ISSUE!

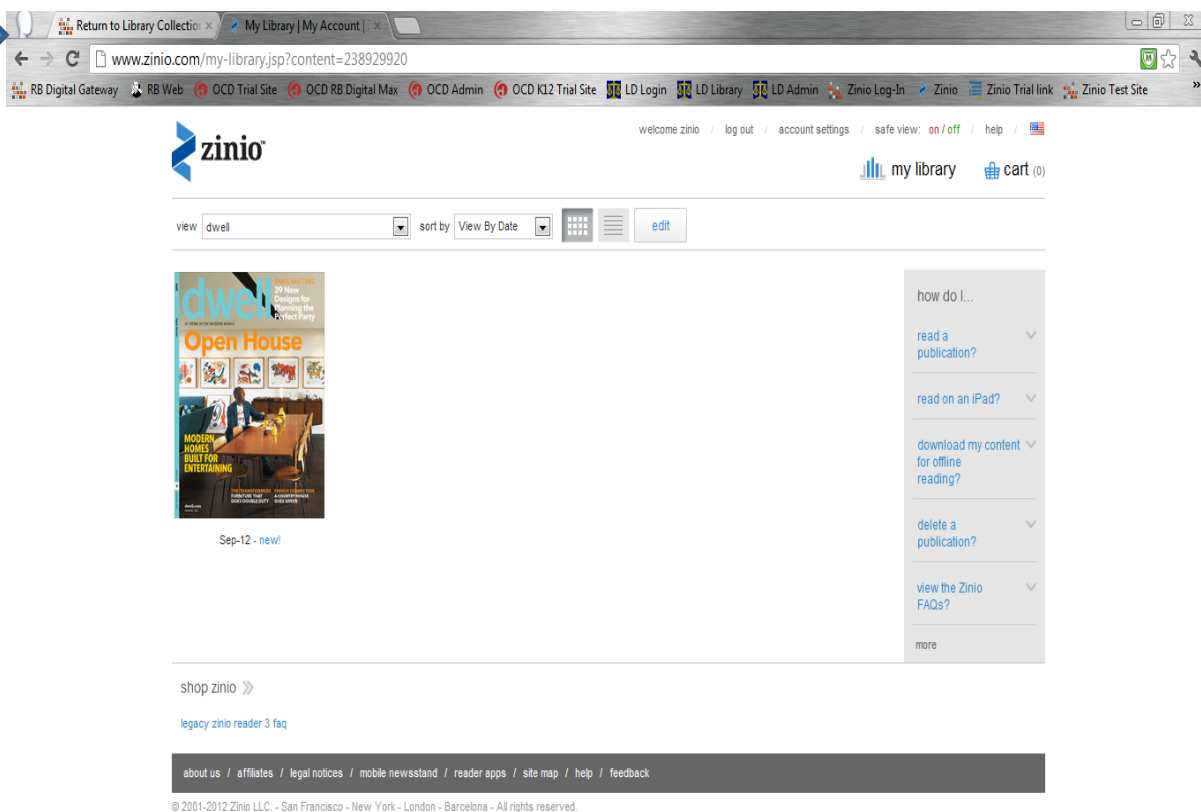

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the Zinio website. The address bar shows the URL www.zinio.com/my-library.jsp?content=238929920. The page features the Zinio logo, navigation links, and a search bar. A magazine cover for 'dwell' is displayed, with a blue arrow pointing to it labeled 'Click to View'. To the right of the magazine cover is a sidebar with a 'how do I...' menu containing options like 'read a publication?', 'read on an iPad?', 'download my content for offline reading?', 'delete a publication?', 'view the Zinio FAQs?', and 'more'. Another blue arrow points from the sidebar to the magazine cover, labeled 'Reader4 Apps for Offline viewing also available'. The footer of the page includes links for 'about us', 'affiliates', 'legal notices', 'mobile newsstand', 'reader apps', 'site map', 'help', and 'feedback', along with the copyright notice: '© 2001-2012 Zinio LLC - San Francisco - New York - London - Barcelona - All rights reserved.'

12. Managing Your Zinio Magazines in your Viewer

•While you are on your Zinio viewer site , if you wish to Return to Your Collection of options at your library site, you can toggle between your browser tabs at the top of your screen (in IE, Firefox, Chrome, and Safari.)

- If your settings show one browser window at a time, check your browser icon for the 'tiled' windows and select between the Return to Library Collection or the Zinio 'My Library/My Account' tab.
- If you do not have either you can simply use the right and left arrows next to the browser header to go back and forth between windows.

Click to View

13. ADDITIONAL VIEWING PREFERENCES AND OPTIONS FOR YOUR PERSONAL PATRON ZINIO ACCOUNT AND SITE

If your magazine is viewable online, the Zinio online reader automatically opens when you click a magazine cover. With the online reader you can view page spreads of the magazine just like in the print edition with many areas of the magazine having added-value links.

14. You may also access your magazines through any of the existing Zinio Reader 4 apps available. Enter the username and password that you used when you created your personal Zinio account when prompted to sign in using the app:

If your mobile device does not have a dedicated App, Zinio may still be accessed using your browser feature (i.e. Nook Color/Tablet) (online connection required.) Virtually all the magazines may be viewed through a device browser (the only exception would be a magazine that requires a Zinio Reader and does not allow for online streaming.)

Magazines accessed through the apps may be viewed online or downloaded so they are available for off-line viewing:
