

Wanted: Teen Volunteers!

We need teen volunteers at the library! Are you interested in helping the library make Summer 2015 the best yet? We're looking for people to help kids sign up for the reading club, to hand out prizes, to help with programs, and to help behind the scenes. Interested? Read on!

Why be a teen volunteer?

- Help library staff, patrons, and your community!
- Meet new people and make new friends!
- Fulfill requirements for volunteer or community service hours! Check with your school for more information.
- Gain experience for your college applications or future jobs!

Who can do it? Someone who:

- Is at least 13 or entering 7th grade.
- Is willing to come to volunteer at least 3 times during the summer.
- Wants to contribute to their community.
- Enjoys working with people and kids.
- Likes to help prepare for programs and events.

How do I apply?

- Fill out the application form in this packet & have your parent or guardian sign the waiver.
- Put down 2 community references (Teachers or coaches are often great here. No relatives please and be sure to ask them first!)
- Turn in your application to the library by April 17.
- We'll contact your references and invite you to an orientation meeting at the library – Meetings are Monday, May 11th at 7pm & Wednesday, May 13th at 4pm

LIBRARY VOLUNTEER PROCEDURE

Individuals are encouraged to volunteer their time and efforts in service of the Spring Lake District Library and its mission “to provide current, high-interest materials in a variety of formats, to encourage children’s interest in reading by offering a stimulating array of materials and programs, and to serve as an informational center for the community.”

Each volunteer will complete an application form, be interviewed, and, if accepted, will be assigned to work at times agreeable to both the volunteer and the library staff.

Volunteers are required to sign a liability waiver before beginning service at the library, In the case of a minor child, the parent or legal guardian must sign the waiver form.

Volunteers will work with and will be evaluated by library staff but will not replace paid staff. Each volunteer must fill out a time card record to be kept at the library to facilitate record keeping.

Volunteer schedules will be arranged in advance and volunteers will be expected to work at the agreed upon times. Volunteers are requested to notify the library if they will be unable to work, or if they no longer wish to volunteer.

Volunteers will work under the supervision of a library staff member and will be made aware of the Library’s expectations in relation to the work assigned. Volunteers will be expected to operate within the stated policies and procedures of the Library.

Volunteers who do not adhere to the rules and procedures of the library or who fail to satisfactorily perform their counter assignments are subject to dismissal. No volunteer will be terminated unless the volunteer has had an opportunity to discuss the possible dismissal with supervisory staff. Possible grounds for dismissal may include, but are not limited to, the following: gross misconduct, theft of property or misuse of library materials, abuse or mistreatment of clients, staff or other volunteers, failure to abide by library policies and procedures, and failure to satisfactorily perform assigned duties.

In order to show appreciation for volunteer effort, annual recognition will be given based on the number of hours of service. This will include the addition of books to the collection in honor of the volunteer. For each 100 hours served, one book will be added to the collection with a bookplate inserted acknowledging the volunteer being honored.
