Reading Gives You Superpowers!

23rd Annual Bookmark Contest

For Kids in Preschool—Grade 8

October 1—22, 2016

3 Steps to a Bookmark!

- 1) Think about what you enjoy about reading, books, libraries, or learning.
- 2) Draw your design in the box provided. Make it as original as you are!
- 3) Turn in the completed form to Youth Services by October 22.

- Bring your design to Youth Services at Spring Lake District Library after October 1 and before 5pm on October 22, 2016
- All entries will be displayed in the library during November 2016. Winners' bookmarks will be printed for use in the library, and prizes will be given.

Rules and Helpful Hints from the Judges

Use the form provided or create a design no bigger than a box 6 inches tall by 3 inches wide. Below the box, please write your name, school, grade, address, and phone number.

Colors are allowed and encouraged! (Helpful hint: Bright, bold colors will show up better if your bookmark gets printed)

The theme is Reading Gives You Superpowers but if inspiration strikes, anything related to books, reading, libraries, etc. is allowed too.

- Lettering should be clean and neat.
- Make sure all words are spelled correctly.
- Don't use recognizable characters or logos.
- Don't trace or copy other designs or pictures.

Enter as many times as you have ideas. Entries will be judged on originality, printability, and general awesomeness.

This contest is sponsored by the Friends of the Spring Lake District Library
